James H. Buckley

James H. Buckley was born at Manchester, Lancashire, England on May 14, 1824, to Robert and Mary Buckley. He came to America from England in April of 1849. He married Sarah(Lawton) Haigh(born about April 8, 1826 in Lancashire, Eng.), daughter of James & Mary Lawton, on July 2, 1853 at the home of John Howarth, Justice of the Peace of Yorkville Township, Racine County. Sarah was the widow of John Haigh, resident of Paris Twp., Kenosha Co., who died in California in Dec. of 1852. He had gone to CA in 1849 with the lure of the Gold Rush, but it was believed that he was lost in the mountains and starved to death. James Buckley was the hired man on the Haigh farm. Sarah (Lawton) Haigh had 4 children with her first husband. On Jan. 29, 1856, James Buckley was granted guardianship of these children. He acquired land in the NE quarter of Section 2, Paris Twp, Kenosha Co, and across the road in the SE quarter of Section 35, Yorkville Twp, Racine Co. There are 4 known children of James & Sarah(Lawton) Haigh Buckley. Sarah Buckley died on Oct 16, 1883 and James died on May 6, 1905. They are buried at Sylvania Cemetery.

James H./son of A.H. & E. Carroll/died July 5, 1872/aged 5 yr 5mo 18ds

Andrew Carroll was born in Brighton Twp, Kenosha Co, about 1840 to Thomas & Bridgett Carroll who came to America from Ireland about 1839. Andrew's wife Elizabeth was born about 1839 in England and is the same age as Elizabeth Lee, daughter of James & Alice Lee who came to America and settled in Yorkville Twp in 1842. James Lee is the owner of this lot. Andrew & Elizabeth Carroll were listed in the 1880 census of Caledonia Twp. with 2 daughters, age 10 & 3. The James that is buried here could have been born between the 2 girls.

Description of lot owner's family: James Lee

James Lee was born in England about 1809. He and his wife Alice came to America with 4 children in May of 1842. One of their children was born on the Atlantic Ocean in 1842. They must have settled in New Jersey for a while, because a child was born there in 1846. The next child was born in WI in 1849. This family settled in Yorkville Twp, Racine Co, WI. This James Lee may be a brother to Thomas Lee(Block 1, Lot 7, SD), because daughter Susannah married Edward Lee, son of Thomas, as his first wife. On the marriage license, it said they were intermarried, which possibly means first cousins.

Elisha Baker was born about 1811 in the state of NY. He married Adeline R. Bailey (born NY about 1814), sister of Norman Bailey, in NY. Daughter Laura & son Myron (2nd Myron) were born in Owasco, Cayuga Co, NY. Elisha was a cashier in a bank in Syracuse, NY for many years. He was a captain in the New York State militia. He came to WI in 1838 and became a farmer in Paris Twp, Kenosha Co. Two children were born in WI: Frances A. (Abigail) and Warren E. Elisha died on May 6, 1857. His wife died in June, 1889. The 1892 Racine-Kenosha Co. History states that they are both buried in the Sylvania Cemetery. There is no stone with her name on it anymore. It is not known who Deborah Baker was, but this stone is almost illegible (could be Elisha's mother, because she came West with the Baker family).

Elisha's father was a Revolutionary War soldier and died in New York. His mother Lois came West and died in Kenosha Co. Adaline (Mrs. Elisha Baker)'s father also served in the Revolutionary War. Mr. Bailey married Abigail Price who came to WI and died in Kenosha Co. Abigail (Price) Bailey, mother of Adaline R. (Bailey) Baker could also be buried here. She lived with her daughter on the farm in Paris Twp. She died on April 13, 1866 at the age of 65 years.
