

HOME TRADE HUNT FOR TEXTILES SHORT SUPPLIES OF RAW MATERIALS

Wholesale and retail buyers for the home trade are still on the hunt for textiles of all kinds. Most of the Scottish linen manufacturers are employing a variety of rationing systems, and to matter how far buyers travel, they are not much more successful than they have been in London.

The provision of a lack to make linen in the home is steadily increasing. The demand is a questionable quantity at all times and will continue to be so.

Export trade is good where cloth can be sent to the United States, Canada and South Africa.

Farm Topics. THERE ARE NOW 13,000 TRACTORS ON FARM WORK

By Our Agricultural Correspondent. MECHANISATION of the land has gone on apace since the start of the war. Since June 1939 up to the present the tractor has been the most important factor in the mechanisation of the land.

These tractor drivers are recruited by the Department of Agriculture, which are hired out to farmers. Here, too, there has been a great increase during the war years and the tractor section of the Department was formerly known as the tractor section.
