

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Timber-Culture Certificate No. 20
Application 653

Whereas there has been deposited in the General Land Office of the United States a CERTIFICATE of the Register of the Land Office at San Francisco, California, whereby it appears that, pursuant to the Acts of Congress approved March 3, 1873, March 13, 1874, and June 14, 1878, "to encourage the growth of timber on the Western Prairies," the claim of William L. Adam has been established and duly consummated in conformity to law for the South West quarter of the South East quarter, the South East quarter of the South West quarter and the West half of the South West quarter of Section thirty-five, in Township ten North, of Range thirty-four West of San Bernardino Meridian in California, containing one hundred and sixty acres.

according to the Official Plat of the Survey of the said Land returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General.

Now know ye, that there is therefore granted by the UNITED STATES unto the said William L. Adam the tract of Land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of Land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said William L. Adam and to his heirs and assigns forever; subject to any vested and accrued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing, or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection with such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws, and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or intersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law.

In testimony whereof I, William McKinley, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the CITY OF WASHINGTON, the twenty-seventh day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-second.

By the President: William McKinley.

By F. M. McKean, Secretary.

C. H. Brush, Recorder of the General Land Office.
